Certificate Courses - 2024

1. Essentials in Teaching English Literature

1. Introduction

The Department of English seeks the permission of the Faculty Board, Faculty of Arts, University of Colombo to offer a certificate course in Essentials in Teaching English Literature. The course is expected to commence in November 2024.

2. The Need

English literature is a key component of the English subject in all sectors of school education at present. Many schools prefer to introduce English literature earlier rather than later in the school curriculum. Teachers for this subject are recruited based on their English language proficiency, or qualifications related to English language; however, they are expected to teach literature. At times, they have little knowledge of the literary texts, genres or of relevant pedagogical knowledge. Therefore, the Department of English aims to cater to this need with a certificate course which will allow applicants to become familiar with the essentials of teaching English literature.

3. Objectives

The objectives of this certificate course are as follows:

- a) Familiarize prospective/current teachers of literature in English with key literary genres
- b) Provide foundational pedagogical skills for teaching English literature

4. Target Groups

The course will cater to current or prospective teachers of English literature in any sector of school education. Teachers in tertiary-level institutions may also find this course beneficial.

2. Public Speaking in English

1. Introduction

The Department of English seeks the permission of the Faculty Board, Faculty of Arts, University of Colombo to offer a certificate course in Public Speaking in English.

The course is expected to commence in November 2024.

2. The Need

Speaking skills in the English language are important, yet not very well developed in school. Employees both in the private and state sector need the ability to speak in public to develop to their full professional potential. There is a need, therefore, for a focused short programme which will enhance not only speakers' fluency but also their confidence in speech. The Department of English aims to cater to this need with a certificate course which will allow applicants with different levels of fluency to develop their skill in public speaking.

3. Objectives

The objectives of this certificate course are as follows:

- a) build confidence in speaking in English in front of an audience
- b) develop the speaker's ability to speak to varied audiences in English

4. Target Groups

This course is meant for any individual who wishes to develop fluency and confidence in speaking in English. This includes, but is not limited to, professional sectors, state sector employees, school leavers, community leaders, and other such individuals.
