About Us

The Department of International Relations, Faculty of Arts, University of Colombo offers general and honours degrees at the undergraduate level as well as the Master of Arts degree in International Relations. The Department also conducts a Certificate Course in International Relations. This is in response to requests from the public who do not have the opportunity to study International Relations as a subject at the University level.

Course

This course is designed as an introduction to the subject of International Relations. At the end of the course, students will gain a basic introduction to the subject of International Relations. They will have an understanding of the significant developments in the field of International Relations. Finally, the students will have an up-to-date knowledge on contemporary issues in International Relations, including intervention, trans-border activism and use of power.

Successfully completed participants will receive the certificate issued by the University of Colombo.

Eligibility Requirements

The Certificate Course is intended for those with G.C.E. Advanced Level (G.C.E. A\L) qualifications, who wish to undertake further studies in International Relations.

The course is designed for those purely interested in acquiring a better understanding of International Relations as well as for those seeking a qualification to enhance their career prospects.
