

Abstract

Authors are required to provide an abstract of no more than 250 words. The abstract should concisely present the objective of the study, the methodology, the principal findings, and the major conclusions. It should be written as a single paragraph without sections or subheadings. References, citations, tables, figures, and abbreviations (unless essential and defined at first use) should not be included in the abstract.

Keywords

Provide three to six keywords that accurately represent the main content of the article.
