

About Online Chinese Test (Home Edition) HSK and HSKK

Due to the current COVID-19 pandemic situation, in order to limit the spread of the epidemic, and to ensure the safety of every staff and test taker, Confucius Institute, University of Colombo decided to launch the Online Chinese Test (Home Edition), to help students' complete HSK exams at home.

Test Date: 27th February 2022
Registration Deadline: 07th February 2022

 According to the regulation HSK Online Home Edition requires HSK and HSKK simultaneously.

The corresponding levels are as follows:

HSK Level 3 + HSKK Primary Level
HSK Level 4 + HSKK Intermediate Level
HSK Level 5-6 + HSKK Advanced Level

Note: The starting time of the primary and intermediate HSKK exams has changed.

 Please note that the Confucius Institute at the University of Colombo only registers 20 candidates for each HSK and HSKK levels to take the test on this date. So, we will be admitted test takers on first come first served criteria. Moreover, after admitting the number of candidates mentioned above, we will close the registration for this exam.

Application requirements:

1. Necessarily access to a computer with required software and internet access.
2. Necessarily access to a room that meets all requirements of the test.
3. Adherence to testing rules of Online Chinese Test (Home Edition).
4. Complete the test registration on www.chinesetest.cn and obtain an admission ticket for an above test date.

Registration:

Confirm equipment and surroundings meet the requirements

Before registering for the exam, please confirm that your computer, software configuration, network, and room meet test requirements:

Computer: Windows (7/8/10) operating system, the recommended screen resolution setting is 1440*900 and above (the minimum setting is 1366*768 and above)

Software: Download and install the client software of Online Chinese Test (Home Edition)

Network: Internet speed 150KB / s and above.

Camera: HD (more than 300,000 pixels). The room should also be well-lit and the camera unobstructed.

Headphones: Clear with good sound insulation.

Microphone (for HSKK): Clear recording with no noise. (Website for equipment detecting for test taker: <https://test.chinesetest.cn:36165/check>)

Examination environment: The test should be taken in a safe and closed room with no disturbances. It is forbidden to take the test in public areas such as parks, internet cafes, restaurants, etc. Computers and keyboards must be placed on a desk or table. No one else is allowed to enter or leave the room during the test. There must not be any prohibited items in the testing room.

Please note:

- ❖ Scribbled notes on paper or electronic equipment is NOT needed during the Online Chinese Test (Home Edition). Copying and recording any part of the exam with paper or electronic equipment is prohibited.
- ❖ To ensure the safety and smoothness of test, CTI or the local test center may need to collect test-related information from you, including: name, photo, ID, audio and video records taken during the test. We will only use personal information permitted by law, for purposes such as maintaining exam security.

HSK Level I

HSK (Level I) assesses test takers' abilities in the application of everyday Chinese. It is the counterpart of the Level I of the Chinese Language Proficiency Scales for Speakers of Other Languages and the A1 Level of the Common European Framework of Reference (CEF). Test takers who are able to pass the HSK (Level I) can understand and use very simple Chinese phrases, meet basic needs for communication and possess the ability to further their Chinese language studies.

The HSK (Level I) is intended for students who have studied Chinese for a semester (half an academic year), with 2-3 class hours in each week. These students have mastered 150 commonly used words and basic grammar patterns.
